909 m² de superficie

5.8 Ha de terreno

The expansive, 6-hectare estate boasts an unbeatable location, optimal orientation and panoramic views thanks to its lofty position.

Just 15 minutes from Oviedo's bustling city centre, this property offers spectacular views and excellent potential for full refurbishment to the new owner's taste.

The plot features a large, traditional Asturian house spanning over 500 sqm, whose original charms have stood the test of time; a comprehensive refurbishment could transform this rough diamond into the home of your dreams. The estate is connected to the electricity grid and water supply.

The property also comprises additional built space distributed across the old stone stables and a former cider press.

The property is ideal for conversion to one large residence, but also offers great potential as a tourism, cultural or agricultural operation.

The estate's fantastic location is certainly key to its appeal, just a few minutes from the wonderful city of Oviedo and right at the heart of the region of Asturias, within quick, easy reach of places of extraordinary beauty.

If you want a home you can really make your mark on, this is the property for you.
