Enchanting country home in an idyllic Cantabrian setting, Cantabria
Ref. S157

If you're looking for an extraordinary property with the space to realise your dreams, this charming country manor is a must-view.

Precio €750.000
9 habitaciones
7 baños
550 m² de superficie
11 Ha de terreno

Comprising three fine stone buildings and an 11-hectare estate, it's an outdoor enthusiast's paradise, enveloped by nature.

Just over 10 km from the Cantabrian coast, the manor house is a vision in traditional stone, its interior the perfect canvas for your own unique style.

A magnificent drive lined by old-growth oak and chestnut trees feels like the entryway to a magical realm.

The main house, with its gracious stone façade, is a former convent, and retains an original charm and character that will only be accentuated by sensitive renovation.

A secondary building makes a delightful guesthouse, while a more recent addition, featuring a stunning glass-fronted gallery on the main façade, affords lavish views of the surrounding countryside.

A rustic barn provides additional storage space.

What makes this property extra special is its glorious natural setting, despite being a mere 30 km from Santander and less than 15 minutes from Santillana del Mar.

Close by, you'll discover spectacular cliffscapes, lovely beaches (such as Playa de Luaña and Playa de Comillas) and breathtaking natural parks.

This rare gem offers tremendous potential as a unique family home, while the widespread appeal of this beautiful area makes it equally suited for rural tourism.
